

CLS 38-2: The Panels

(2002)

Edited by Mary Andronis, Erin Debenport, Anne Pycha & Keiko Yoshimura

399 pages

ISBN 0-914203-63-0

$22.00

Table of Contents

Negation and Polarity Items

JOANNA BLASZCZAK

What do bagels and Polish kolwiek-pronouns have in common? 3

ANDJELKA GINA BULATOVIC

Looking for Any: Serbo-Croatian Bilo, Bulgarian Kakvoto ida e and the Nonveridicality Hypothesis 19

ANASTASIA GIANNAKIDOU

Licensing and sensitivity in polarity items: from downward entailment to (non)veridicality 29

LAURENCE R. HORN

Assertoric inertia and NPI licensing 55

YOUNGJUN JANG & YUNG-HYE KWON

Indefinite nouns plus two types of conjoiners 83

TOSHIKO ODA

Exclamatives and negative islands 97

HOTZE RULLMAN

A note on the history of either 111

ADAM WERLE

A typology of negative indefinites 127

HEDDE H. ZEIJLSTRA

What the Dutch Jespersen Cycle may reveal about Negative Concord 143

Sub-symbolic Approaches to Language

RUTVIK DESAI

Item-based language learning in children and connectionist networks 159

JEFFERY L. ELMAN

Generalization from sparse input 175

STEFAN TH. GRIES

Some characteristics of English morphological blends 201

DAISUKE HARA
A complexity-based approach to syllable formation in American Sign Language	217
JESSE HARRIS & TERRY REGIER
The associative origin of words	235
BRIAN MACWHINNEY
The emergence of language from body, brain, and society	247
UTA PRISS
A classification of associative and formal concepts	273
AYŞE PINAR SAYGIN & STEPHEN WILSON
Paradigm reanalysis and the representation of morphologically complex words in Turkish	285
RAJENDRA SINGH & SYLVAIN NEUVEL
When the whole is smaller than the sum of its parts: The case of morphology	299
Indigenous Languages of Latin America: Standardization and Multilingualism
RUSTY BARRETT
The Huevetenango Sprachbund and Mayan language standardization in Guatemala	309
J. C. BROWN
Licensing and glottalization in Mixtec	319
JINSOOK CHOI
"People from the mountain have acento indigena (Indian accent)": Double-bound Mayan identities and the dilemma of Mayan linguistic purism in Guatemala	327
JAN TERJE FAARLUND
Clitics and morphological categories in Zoque	241
JOHN HAVILAND
Evidential mastery	349
PAUL KOCKELMAN
Factive and counterfactive clitics in Q'eqchi'-Maya: Stance, status, and subjectivity	369
JOHANNA MATTISSEN
The missing link between different types of polysynthetic languages	385

Libre 2013